About You

The Support Coordinator (NDIS) will be able to work positively with people's strengths and capacities and seek opportunities for genuine inclusion in their community. A Tertiary or Diploma qualification in Community Services or related field and previous experience in a similar position within the support worker industry will enable you to be successful in this position. Your solid understanding of the Disability Act and NDIS; the NDIS Price Guide, NDIS Plan Budgets and the NDIS Participant Pathway will also be fundamentally important.

Ideally, you will be a First Nations person.

We invite you to walk with us on this unique journey...

Please apply via Seek and upload your current resume and a two-page pitch.

Your pitch should tell us more about who you are, what you are passionate about, what interests you about the role and why you may be a good fit for Children's Ground and this position, along with your current resume.

Selection Criteria in the position description will guide how to frame your pitch and will provide information about the content of an interview.

Applications close at 9am NT time (10.30am AEST) on Wednesday, 6th January 2021 with interviews to be held during the week beginning 11th January 2021.

In line with our workforce development strategy, Children's Ground strongly encourages and supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants to apply.
