Background

Children's Ground is working to create a different future for children, families and communities in Alice Springs. Children's Ground listens to Arrernte families and communities, and they are involved in how we design and deliver all Children's Ground activities.

Together, Children's Ground is creating a strong program for learning, development and wellbeing for all Aboriginal people. Children and their families want to work and learn and to grow a strong community that celebrates culture, respects both Aboriginal and Western ways and all the good things in Aboriginal life.

Children's Ground has ten principles that guide us all in how we do all our work:

1. Start early with the little ones
2. Stay with them and grow with them until they are big
3. Work with everyone
4. Use and celebrate people's ability and strength
5. Connect everything – health, learning, family and life
6. Always think about old ways and new ways of doing things
7. Expect and deliver the best
8. Child, family and community led
9. Whole of community, in community
10. Culturally safe

Children's Ground is Australian designed with First Nations people. It is a whole of community, whole of life approach. Children's Ground works with a community over the course of a generation, led by local expertise, vision and intelligence. Together, we create and deliver an integrated system that is centred on learning, development and wellbeing and responds to the child and their family through key transition points from pre-birth to young adulthood. Our approach recognises the cultural, social and economic strength of communities and builds on this to equip children for opportunities locally, nationally and globally.

We are about creating a different future for children, families and communities experiencing the greatest levels of disadvantage and inequity in Australia. Our first priority has been walking with and supporting First Nations communities.

We are currently working in Alice Springs, across 4 communities: Mpweringke Anapipe, Irrkerlantye, Uyenpere Atwatye and Yarrenyty Arltere, in a grass roots approach to deliver our Learning, Health, Community Development, Enterprise Development and Wellbeing platforms. Each area has Arrernte elders and educators who work in their respective communities and are part of the Children's Ground Advisory group. We also undertaking our Walk, Talk and Act community engagement phase with Amengkwerne community.

We have a Children's Ground hub in a central location in Alice Springs. This hub houses our office, an early years space, a community meeting space, a kitchen and an outdoor learning area. We deliver weekly early years activities 'on country' as well as at our hub for each of our 4 communities.
