

Community Support Coordinator - Darwin

- Join a growing not-for-profit organisation
- $96,357 - $100,837 + super & generous salary packaging benefits
- Full time 2 year contract (extension subject to funding)

About Us

Children's Ground is working to create an environment where families realise their aspirations for the next generation of children to be free from trauma and suffering, to enjoy equity and safety, to be able to grow into adulthood happy and healthy, and to have agency over their social, cultural, political and economic life.

We celebrate First Nations children and families and back their vision and talent to transform their communities from extreme stress and economic disadvantage to communities of opportunity and wellbeing. To learn more about Children's Ground and the work we do, visit our website: <https://www.childrenground.org.au>

About the Job

Central to CG strategy is community wellbeing and development. As family and community environments influence children's early learning and development, supporting people to realise their priorities for their community is paramount. Community development and wellbeing relates to all our operational areas. Reviving, celebrating, and maintaining cultural traditions and life are supported through our everyday practice including through delivery of community development activities.

The Community Support Coordinator position ensures that the Family Support Service is delivered with quality and integrity in accordance with the Children's Ground Approach. The role is responsible for the implementation and facilitation of the Family Support Service.

To view the full position description, visit: <https://childrensground.org.au/get-involved/work-with-us/>

About You

The Community Support Coordinator will be able to work positively with people's strengths and capacities and seek opportunities for genuine inclusion in their community. Relevant qualifications and experience, such as social work, community development and social science will enable you to be successful in this position. You will have previous experience working with First Nations communities and an understanding of the effects of colonisation, disempowerment, and intergenerational trauma will be fundamentally important.

Ideally, you will be a First Nations person.

We invite you to walk with us on this unique journey...

Please apply via -SEEK and upload your current resume and a two-page pitch.

Your pitch should tell us more about who you are, what you are passionate about, what interests you about the role and why you may be a good fit for Children's Ground and this position, along with your current resume.

The Selection Criteria in the position description will guide how to frame your pitch and will provide information about the content of an interview.

Preferred candidate will be required to undergo a National Police Check and obtain an NT Ochre Working with Children Check card.

Applications close at 9am on Monday 11th July 2022.

In line with our workforce development strategy, Children's Ground strongly encourages and supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants to apply.