About the Job

The Monitoring & Evaluation (M&E) Manager will be responsible for leading the team and work for monitoring and evaluation with Children's Ground communities in and around Darwin. The Manager will oversee and support the Research & Evaluation (R&E) team to achieve high-quality daily data collection and regular communication of data and findings within a continuous improvement cycle. They will be responsible for working with the R&E team and First Nations staff to implement biennial evaluation reporting.

The focus of our monitoring and evaluation is to evidence the impact of the Children's Ground Approach and system. Key to this is the longitudinal evaluation of impact. Children's Ground is committed to community led practice that privileges First Nations culture. In our monitoring and evaluation First Nations Community Research teams and leaders are directly involved in the designing of a new way of approaching evaluation.

Working with First Nations and Western staff, the M&E Manager oversees, coordinates and supports the continued culture of locally relevant and robust monitoring, evaluation and relevant research.
