About the Job

Working alongside our experienced Arrernte educationalists and governance committee and with a focus on community empowerment, our Early Years Educators are responsible for the design and implementation of an innovative and integrated approach to learning and wellbeing. Our Educators are committed to early years learning that privileges First Nations culture with the best of Western teachings.

About You

We are seeking experienced teachers who are dynamic, passionate and innovative to join our team. You will have a demonstrated understanding and commitment to the rights and interests of First Nations people. Ideally, you will be a First Nations person.

We invite you to walk with us on this unique journey...

Please apply via Seek and upload your current resume and 2-page pitch.

<https://www.seek.com.au/job/58415931>

Your pitch should tell us more about who you are, what you are passionate about, what interests you about the role and why you may be a good fit for Children's Ground and this position, along with your current resume.

Selection criteria in the position description will guide how to frame your pitch and will provide some idea about the content of an interview.

Applications close on Thursday, 6 October 2022 at 9am CDT (10.30am AEST). But will have continual open expressions of interest past this date.

In line with our workforce development strategy, Children's Ground strongly encourages and supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants to apply.
